

Sinclair Broadcasting's anti-Kerry documentary just days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

And you're allowing it to happen.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

You know that it's not serving the public interest.

But you care little about Sinclair serving the public interest and more about serving the Bush Administration's interest.

It's no secret that large companies now control the airwaves, and they broadcast what's good for their bottom line and less of what Americans need for our democracy.

You know it, but you care little about our democracy and more about the use of the airwaves as a Bush propaganda tool.

Sinclair's Kerry-smear is nothing other than a campaign ad for the Bush Administration. You know it.

It's pure propaganda, and your problem is that we know it, too. We the people will hold you accountable for not following the law, for allowing Sinclair's pro-Bush propaganda piece to be aired and "sold" to the American people as real news!

Just like Senator McCarthy and the right-wing propagandists in the 30's and 40's, and 90's, you and your master, Mr. Bush will be discredited!

Thank you.
